GEN. MACARTHUR FIRED BY TRUMAN

Truman Impeachment For MacArthur Ouster Talked in Congress

WASHINGTON, April 11—(AP)—Congressional Republicans, angered by President Truman's firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, talked of "possible impeachments" today and got the general's agreement to address a joint session of Senate and House.

Senator Wherry of Nebraska and Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the GOP floor leader, talked to MacArthur by transpacific telephone. Martin announced to the House: "I am authorized to say that General MacArthur would be delighted to have an invitation to speak" to a joint session. He added that MacArthur "can be here in about three weeks."

Martin introduced a resolution calling for an invitation to MacArthur to address Congress.

Wherry prepared a similar one for the Senate.

What the Democrats would do about this move was not immediately clear. Some would have to support it in order for such an invitation to be voted.

Many of them would like to hear MacArthur's version of his controversy with the administration which led President Truman to fire him summarily early this morning as the Far Eastern commander.

Invitation Completed
But inviting MacArthur to air his views at a joint Senate-House session is a different matter than hearing them behind closed committee doors.

Martin told the House he believes the entire situation involving MacArthur's removal should be investigated.

Rep. Cox (D-Ga) put in that he would be glad to support a resolution for an investigation if it provided for an inquiry into the State Department.

At one point there was a mild

Because there was a price on their heads—I mean feet—three cute little cub foxes met untimely death at the Court House this week.

They were brought to Sheriff Orland Hays by Charles Woods, who resides 1 1/2 miles north of Washington C. H.

The little red foxes were cuddled in the sleeve of a coat carried by Woods.

"I don't want live foxes, or dead ones," explained Sheriff Hays, "I just want the feet of the foxes before I can O. K. payment of $2.50 a head."

Woods was accommodating. He disappeared with the three foxes with a price on their feet, and a short time later reappeared with the feet of the cubs.

He obtained a warrant for $7.50 for the cubs' feet and went downstairs to the office of County Auditor Ulric T. Acton to obtain vouchers to collect from the County Treasurer Charles Fabb.

Sentiment Here Favors MacArthur

Everyone in Washington C. H. had an opinion on President Truman's dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur Wednesday.

Most of the persons polled by a Record-Herald roving reporter seemed to feel that Truman had more or less "put his foot in it" this time. In fact, most persons voiced the opinion that the president should be impeached.

Here are some of the comments given by Washington C. H. residents to the question of what they think of the "firing."

Doctor: "I think they have been making a political football out of boys' lives. MacArthur was a good general and had the situation in hand and should be put back."

Tavern Owner: "It is time we get rid of the horse traders in Washington and get down to business. Congress should call a session and find out the true facts about the situation in Korea and put the blame where it belongs. If it affects the biggest man we have, as I think it does, he should be impeached at once."

Policeman: "I think MacArthur understands the Eastern situation better than anyone and should be given a free hand to go ahead."

Red Hot Democrat: "MacArthur has forgotten more than Truman ever knew. I think they should impeach Truman because of his utter stupidity."

Funeral Director: "Let MacArthur alone! Keep politics out of this mess. General MacArthur is doing a fine job running Japan. Let him run the Korean situation. Impeach the president!"

Fireman: "In my opinion, General MacArthur is a very capable general and is on the battle front. He knows his job, if anyone does—he was good enough to handle the war with Japan. I personally think he should have been given a free hand in the Far East with North Koreans and Reds. After all, if you give a man a lot of responsibility and tie his hands, you cannot expect him to accomplish his objective."

Ex-GI: "There has not been a president impeached, but now is the time to do it. He (Mr. Truman) made a very bad mistake by letting MacArthur go."

Auto Dealer: "MacArthur should be left alone. It looks like Korea was a political football game to be kicked around as such."

Ex-GI Officer: "When a man like MacArthur is in complete command he should have the right to think. It looks to me like all they (Please turn to Page Two)

MacArthur Removal Approved in Europe

LONDON, April 11—(AP)—Western Europe's first reaction today to dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur from his United Nations command in Korea was one of general approval.

Indian officials, whose government has been one of the loudest critics of MacArthur's political pronouncements, also expressed general satisfaction. New Delhi circles expected the removal to result in new peace overtures to the Chinese Communists by the Indians.

The Soviet-controlled east German press and radio announced President Truman's action without comment, in a coldly factual manner, and without the usual insulting language it has heaped on the five-star general's head ever since the Korean war started.

Moscow so far was silent. The Russian press this morning carried neither the announcement of the dismissal nor comment on it.

In Paris UN Secretary General Trygve Lie declined to comment. A spokesman said the removal of the UN commander was an internal matter of the unified command.

Western-minded Germans, anxious to see defense plan priority given to Europe rather than Asia, were relieved at the dismissal. They attributed to MacArthur a contrary view.

Here were some of the first comments:

A ranking British Commonwealth diplomat—"good old Harry. He always comes up when nobody expects him to."

Italian Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza—"only a policy of the United Nations is possible in the Far East. That is why President Truman's decision is a guarantee that this supreme principle is going to be followed."

A French foreign official spokesman—"We have a high regard for General MacArthur's political and diplomatic matters would unless a global war in Asia. Some openly had demanded his removal. Britain and France had been particularly insistent that Washington curb the Far Eastern commander."

A Dutch foreign official spokesman said at the Hague that the Netherlands government considered Truman's decision a wise one.

British Commonwealth diplomats in London were stunned by Truman's unexpected action, but privately hailed it. London's embassies, including that of the United States, were staggered. They said they had no inkling the president would do more than rebuke MacArthur.

In the British capital the consensus was that Truman had had to choose between firing the controversial general, or going to war now with Communist China.

UN GETS SURPRISE

LAKE SUCCESS, April 11—(AP)—President Truman's firing of Supreme Commander Douglas MacArthur gave the United Nations perhaps its biggest surprise since the Korean war began and fulfilled the often expressed wishes of a number of UN delegates, especially the British and French.

Hospital Expansion Here Is Discussed

New Wing for at Least 20 Beds Is Needed—Financing Discussed

Decision as to whether action shall be taken soon on an expansion program to provide more beds and rooms at the Fayette County Memorial Hospital, probably will be made in the very near future.

This thought followed a general discussion of the situation, held at the hospital Tuesday night at a conference of members of the hospital's medical staff, hospital board members, administrator and a few other interested citizens.

The meeting was in the nature of an exploratory session to get some idea of public opinion as to what should be done, data as to costs of any proposed addition and information as to procedure in the event it is considered desirable to present the matter to the people.

Comment was freely sought and given during the meeting. Before adjournment there seemed to be a unanimous agreement that a wing, to provide for at least 20 additional beds, to include a number of private rooms, was needed.

Finances Discussed
The question also arose as to how it should be financed. It was brought out that the construction of such a wing, with equipment and necessary furnishings would cost close to $100,000.

Whether this money, if a decision is reached to try to obtain the improvement, should be raised by a campaign for contributions from citizens of the county, or by taxation, was also seriously discussed.

It was also stated that a bond issue for $100,000, to be paid by a quarter of a mill annual tax levy, over a ten year period, would produce sufficient funds to take care of the building and equipping of such a wing. This would mean a cost of 25 cents per year on each $1000 of taxable property on the county tax duplicate. It was cited, as an example, that property on the tax duplicate for $4,000, would cost the tax paying owner $1 per year, on a ten year

Truck-taxing Bill For Ohio Taken Up

COLUMBUS, April 11—(AP)—House committees sent truck-taxing bills and a measure permitting pre-primary conventions to subcommittees last night and heard opening arguments on two "compulsory" FEPC bills.

Hundreds of spectators jammed committee rooms and corridors as hearings were held simultaneously on the three major legislative problems.

The House industry and labor committee was told by Irving Kane, member of the board which administers Cleveland's FEPC ordinance.

"FEPC is not some crackpot fancy dream—not some crackpot theory; the experience of Cleveland and Philadelphia and several states is a clear answer to the mental forebodings of opponents. The fears of strife have not been realized. Success of this type of legislation have exceeded our most sanguine expectations."

Key Red Base in Korea Wiped Out by Allies

By OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, April 11—(AP)—Command of United Nations forces in Korea shifted abruptly today from General MacArthur to Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway.

The 56-year-old paratroop veteran of Sicily and Normandy garnishes his uniform with a live grenade. Worn tight to his shoulder, it has become as much a trademark as the late Gen. George Patton's pearl handled six-shooters.

But Ridgway has more than color. In less than four months since he took command of Allied ground forces in Korea Dec. 27, he has whipped a defeat-ridden army into a winning team.

Ridgway is no rear echelon general. He has been bitten by the frontline flea. Moving back and forth across the front with a compact staff, he has directed his drive against the Reds from forward command posts.

On the east coast where south

Korean troops had thrust about 15 miles north of the border, there were no reports of ground action. Allied ships pounded rail lines and roads.

South Korea was virtually free of Communist troops. The last major pocket of Reds was holding out west of the Imjin River on the extreme western front.

Van Fleet was named to succeed Ridgway.

Chorwon, western anchor of the Red buildup area, was the headquarters of three Chinese army corps. Field dispatches said it was completely destroyed. American artillery opened up on it for the first time three days ago.

Hwachon, seven miles north of Parallel 38, was the eastern base of the Communist buildup area. Intelligence reports placed nearly one-half million Communist combat troops in the Chorwon-Hwachon-Kumhwa triangle.

Failure To Back U. S. Policies Is Given as Cause

Sensational Action Stirs Furor among Nation's Lawmakers

WASHINGTON, April 11—(AP)—President Truman fired Gen. Douglas MacArthur today on grounds he failed to support—and publicly sought to change—the grand strategy of the United Nations war against Red aggression in Korea.

RIDGWAY SILENT

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, April 11—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway had no comment for the press today when he learned he had been named to succeed General Douglas MacArthur.

A press officer traveling with Ridgway said "his only comment was a terse no comment."

In a sensational statement released at the White House at 1 A. M. (EST) after days of soul-searching and indecision, the president announced:

"With deep regret I have concluded that General of the Army Douglas MacArthur is unable to give his wholehearted support to the policies of the United States government and of the United Nations in matters pertaining to his official duties."

Acting with lightning speed on that conclusion, once he had reached it, the president:

1. Relieved the 71-year-old MacArthur of his four-fold duties as supreme Allied occupation commander in Japan; United Nations commander in chief for Korea; United States commander in chief for the Far East; and commanding general of the United States Army in the Far East.

2. Named Lieut. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, field commander in Korea, to succeed MacArthur in all these commands. That means Ridgway not only will direct the UN campaign in Korea but also wind up the Japanese occupation, assuming peace treaty plans go through.

3. Named Lieut. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the Second Army at Fort George G. Meade, Md., to take over the Eighth Army Command in Korea from Ridgway.

4. Issued a set of secret messages exchanged between MacArthur and the joint chiefs of staff here. The evident aim was to show MacArthur had scorned successive Washington directives to clear anything he said on major political or military policy with either the State or Defense Departments.

Cause of Removal

The order relieving MacArthur of command was Mr. Truman's answer to the general's persistent campaign of public statements to get the United States to follow a different policy in the Far East and especially, with its UN Allies, in the Korean war.

Essentially he has advocated expanding the war to include direct attacks on Red China. He has presented Asia rather than Europe as the critical theater of conflict with aggressive Communism.

The bombshell announcement was made by Press Secretary Joseph H. Short at a hastily summoned White House news conference.

The president told MacArthur he is free to "travel to such places as you select"—thus, freeing the general to return to this country after an absence of nearly 14 years. There were immediate demands in Congress that he come at once to Washington to give his views.

In addition to the heretofore secret messages, orders sent out shortly before midnight to bring about the spectacular shakeup in the Far East were also released.

The secret message file showed MacArthur had been covered in a general presidential order last Dec. 6, clamping down on policy statements by all government officials. He had been bluntly reminded of this by Mr. Truman's direction on March 24, after issuing his famous bid to the Red commander in Korea to talk peace as UN forces reached the 38th parallel.

Reminder Ignored

Meanwhile, on March 20, the record showed, MacArthur had sent to House Republican Joe Martin (Mass) the letter endorsing (Please turn to Page Eleven)

Swimming Pool Plans Take Form

Small Increase Is Made in Fees

Plans for opening the Washington Park swimming pool on May 30 today were taking on definite form following a meeting of the Park Board Tuesday night.

In spite of increasing costs of operation, the board said it had decided to raise only the fees for associate memberships.

But "associate memberships"—that held by individuals or heads of families—fee is to remain at $10, a board spokesman said.

The single admissions at the gate also are to remain unchanged at 30 cents for children and 60 cents for adults.

Last summer, the first season for the pool, there were 508 master memberships and 500-plus associate memberships.

The board spokesman explained that the increase in the associate memberships "put the increase where it would hurt the least."

There were no figures on the gate receipts immediately available, but it was brought out that while the memberships gave the pool financing a solid foundation, the single admissions "put the fund a little further out of the red for the pool's first season."

Bad weather, with more than the normal number of cool days, was blamed for cutting the attendance and the revenues.

Pierson Named Manager
Fred Pierson, the high school athletic director, was named by the board to take over the management of the pool next summer.

Clyde Helsing, the Jeffersonville High School coach, guided the pool affairs through its first year. However, he has submitted his resignation to the Jeffersonville School Board and the Park Board took the uncertainty of his future into consideration when selecting the pool manager for the coming season, the spokesman said.

The appointment of Pierson as manager of the pool raises another big question—who will take his place as director of the city recreation program next summer?

Pierson has been the recreation director ever since the program was launched on a big scale with support by a tax levy four years ago.

Voters failed, by a narrow margin, to renew the recreation levy at the last election; so, this summer will be the last for the recreation program unless a levy to support it is voted at another election later.

There was no comment from the Recreation Commission over the loss of its director for the last four years.

(By The Associated Press)
Throughout the state, Ohioans joined the future over General MacArthur today by telephoning their newspapers and wiring their congressmen.

The great weight of public sentiment that reached newspapers backed the general. Reaction increased as the day progressed with hundreds calling newspaper offices.

"This is the worst blunder he (President Truman) has ever made," cried one woman who telephoned the Toledo Blade.

"Personally, I am indignant, just burned up," said Mrs. Lucille Means of Columbus, who told the Columbus Dispatch that a group of women are writing letters to Mrs. Truman asking her support in changing the president's mind.

But there was plenty of sentiment backing the president, too. Mayor Albert D. Cash of Cincinnati said the president did "exactly right." John J. Hurst, president of the AFL central labor council, Cincinnati, said the firing of General MacArthur "took a lot of guts and time alone will tell whether it was right or wrong."

Western Union offices reported "quick reaction" to the news, both pro and con. William B. Steers, superintendent of Western Union in Toledo, said Toledoans telephoned in "a great many wires to Washington."

On street corners and in offices throughout the state capital, the discussion raged this morning. There was furious street corner comment that centered around impeachment of President Truman.

bond issue, 50 cents per year if such an issue was extended for as long as 20 years.

If a bond issue is to be sought, the consent of the county commissioners probably would have to be obtained, it was pointed out, and that this board would then take the necessary steps to have the county board of elections bring it before the voters.

Costs and Maintenance
There was considerable talk regarding costs and maintenance, but there appeared to be a feeling on the part of those responsible for the hospital's operation, that the addition of 20 more beds, would be helpful in relieving the congested condition of the institution on many occasions during past months and would place the hospital in a situation where it could become more nearly self-supporting. This of course would depend upon future economic conditions and also upon whether the demand for hospital beds would continue as it has been for several months here. Up to this time, it was stated the hospital has achieved financial results as satisfactory as could be expected.

With the institution open less than a year ago, it was evident to all taking part in the conference, that it has exceeded expectations in use by the public more quickly than previously estimated.

With the rapid growth in the number of hospital insurance policy holders in the city and county, it seemed to be the consensus of opinion that there was little possibility that public demand here would grow less, that it was more likely to increase, even with other hospitals opening in adjoining counties.

The meeting closed with a feeling expressed that there would be some recommendation or decision as to whether to take early future

Impeachment Talk

"He might be even higher later." In times past, the general, now 71, has been mentioned as a possible Republican presidential candidate.

GOP Confab Called
Martin called a conference of all House Republicans for later in the afternoon to talk over the MacArthur matter.

Before the House met, both Senate and House GOP leaders huddled in Martin's office.

Afterwards, Martin issued a statement in which he said, among other things, "the question of possible impeachments was discussed."

Martin was asked about use of the plural "impeachments." The plural was correct, Martin replied.

Asked whether the subject of impeachments applied to anyone in particular, Martin said it applied to anyone "who has transgressed."

Martin let it stand at that. The plain implication, however, was they felt an impeachment move should be made against President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson and possibly others in the Democratic administration.

Impeachment is, in effect, trial for removal from office. The mechanics are this: The House must adopt a resolution of impeachment. The Senate then sits as a court to try the impeachment charges.

Most of the Capitol Hill split over the MacArthur removal was along party lines. For the most part, the Democrats were quick to line up in support of Mr. Truman's action.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House armed services committee got out a statement saying the president has his "full support." He called MacArthur's removal: "it is if anything long overdue."

The emotions stirred by the incident ran so deep it was obvious a "great debate" over Far Eastern policy was in the making—a debate that could have far-reaching political repercussions.

Grain Market
CHICAGO, April 11—(P)—Grain prices tilted lower in a nervous market today, upset by the sudden dismissal of General MacArthur from his commands in the Far East.

The market opened mixed. Around mid-way in the session, prices eased off. Even wheat fell below the previous close. Brokers attributed the selling to a possibility new efforts will be made to bring the Korean conflict to an end.

CASH GRAIN
CHICAGO, April 11—(P)—Cash wheat: none. Corn: No. 3 yellow 1.78-81½; No. 4 1.73-76; sample grade 1.61½-71½. Oats: No. 1 heavy mixed 99; No. 1 heavy white $1; No. 2 heavy white 98½.

Barley: none. Malt: 1.50-78; feed 1.30-55. Soybeans: none.

Financial Market
NEW YORK, April 11—(P)—General MacArthur's dismissal lifted the stock market down today but it later recovered a considerable portion of its loss.

Selling at the start of trading brought on losses running up to around $2 a share, but within the first hour a recovery movement wiped out about half of the losses.

That left the list down by a few cents to a little more than $1 a share with declines of $2 or more infrequent. Trading volume was heavy in the beginning, and then the pace eased a bit, but total trading still was among the heaviest of recent weeks.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, April 11—(P)—President Truman will have been in the White House six years on Thursday, April 12. They have been tremendous years, as tough as any president ever faced. How has he made out?

This can only hit some high spots.

When he succeeded President Roosevelt, the war was still on, in Europe and Asia. He led the country in both places and then into the reconversion to peace and the greatest prosperity the country ever had.

Now he is leading the country back into a period of preparedness for war. When he entered the White House six years ago he had great popular support. Now the polls say his popularity has slipped away down.

It is not the first time his popularity slipped. It hit a low back in 1946 elections when the Republicans won control of Congress for the first time since 1932.

He surged back, when almost no one thought he had a chance, to a stunning victory in the presidential elections of 1948. He may come out of his present slump. It would be a sturdy prophet who would predict otherwise.

But while Mr. Truman sat in the White House and the country grew fat and rich after the war, Communism spread like a flame in other parts of the world. During the war about 190,000,000 were under Communism in Russia.

Now the number is about 735,000,000 counting China, the satellites and part of Korea. And at this moment this country and its western Allies are girding for what may be World War III with the Communist Allies.

Whether Mr. Truman, short of war, could have prevented the spread of Communism anywhere that it has taken over is, of course, the subject of much debate, particularly when China is involved.

But it may be a century before the historians, with the benefit of records and the perspective of 100 years, can attempt to say with any authority that Mr. Truman could have changed the picture, short of war.

Certainly he sparked the Marshall plan which is credited in large part with not only stopping the spread of Communism to western Europe but even with pushing it into retreat there.

And under his leadership—by going to the help of Greece and Turkey to stop Communism there—this country broadened its ancient Monroe Doctrine (protecting only the western hemisphere) and entered the role of world champion.

Mr. Truman expanded that role by leading the country into the Atlantic pact, that league of western nations which have banded together and pledged themselves to go to war if Communism attacks.

In this he had the backing of the country, since the Senate approved the pact and only last week approved putting six American divisions into the Atlantic pact's international army.

(But he suffered a rebuff from the Senate last week when it said it wanted him to get Congress' okay before he commits any more American troops to Europe).

He pushed the new American role of world champion into Asia, too, when he rushed American troops into Korea to stop Communism there. That has been a see-saw fight, with the outcome still uncertain, and over much confusion now about our goal there.

At home, after delaying, he got the country started on a great de-

Silcott Urges Larger Acreage For Corn, Here

Asks Farmers To Take "a Good Look" At Spring Planting

Fayette County farmers were urged today to take another look—"a good look" at their spring planting program, by Harry Silcott, chairman of the Fayette County committee of the Production and Marketing Administration.

"There is serious danger," Silcott says in a statement, "that this year's production of corn in Ohio will fall short of the amount needed in the nation's defense program."

"March planting intentions showed that Ohio farmers are planning to increase this year's corn acreage, but not enough to maintain the state's livestock production or meet the guides," the chairman declares. "The acreage needed in Fayette county is 110 percent of the acreage planted last year."

"We are confident," Silcott added, "that farmers in Fayette county will boost their plantings above the amount indicated in early March, particularly when they realize the urgent need for more corn."

"Last fall," he explained, "the fense program. That hasn't been all smooth sailing by a long shot and he's still trying to find a way to make it click."

Still, as the years pass, Mr. Truman seems more remote from the people. His talks to the nation have become fewer and fewer until the question is raised in many places: "where is the leadership?" And any control he had over Congress, even with his own Democrats back in the majority now, has been badly shattered. His programs are being given the go-slow treatment.

His critics have battered him, and he seems strangely silent, except for brief statements at a news conference now and then. He has shown no signs of meeting his harshest critics head-on, by carrying his case to the people to win wide popular support for his plans.

In short, he's been on the receiving end of criticism without much evidence of that aggressive spirit he showed when he campaigned for the presidency in 1948, when everyone thought it was a lost cause.

And there's no doubt a lot of public confidence in his administration has been shaken by the attacks made on it, such as charges of Communism in government and the state department, including a no-confidence vote in his Secretary of State Acheson by the Republicans in Congress.

carryover of corn in the nation was the largest on record. But already we are eating heavily into that reserve. In this county we had a storage reserve of 204,000 bushel, and already this has been reduced by Fayette County livestock feeders to around 90,000 bushel.

"If the 1951 crop is only around 3 billion bushels, as indicated by the March intentions, farmers will be forced to make a drastic reduction in their livestock operations."

"We cannot run the risk," Silcott emphasized, "of a man-made shortage of corn now. The nation needs more corn—much more than the amount indicated by the March intention."

"Boost both acres and yields to the greatest extent possible. Safeguard your livestock production." Even assuming that yields are normal this year, the increased acreage suggested in the produc-

Shark Fins Cost More

SINGAPORE—(P)—All food costs are steadily going up in Singapore—even shark's fins.

A Chinese restaurateur said the price of fins had risen 30 percent in the last few months. He added: "Chinese diners do not mind the extra cost. They love good food and are willing to pay for it."

Cows appreciate mow cured hay

Jerseys switch from pasture to barn feeding without production slump

• The fifty head of Jersey cattle on Ross Moore's 170-acre farm near Hollansburg, Ohio, require a lot of hay. They seem to like the fine quality hay with improved flavor and nutritive value produced by Ross Moore's new electric hay drying unit. Mr. Moore reports that his cows had access to the hay from October on. They made the change-over from pasture to barn feeding without the usual slump in production.

In 1950, the five Moore brothers, who live on adjoining farms, changed from baling their hay to the use of a field chopper. Because the chopped hay would occupy a smaller space than under previous methods, the dryer unit was designed as a self feeder. Fan and main tunnel are in the basement of a large bank barn. The hay occupies an area 20' x 34' to a depth of 30 feet. Vertical flues carry the air to upper layers of the hay. Over 50 tons of hay were cured in the dryer.

If you are interested in electric hay curing methods and equipment, helpful advice is yours for the asking. Consult with your county agent, vocational agriculture teacher or your Dayton Power and Light Company rural representative.

County Residents Attend Meeting Held in Xenia

Almost 20 4-H Club leaders, home demonstration council members, Grange leaders and Farm Bureau council leaders were in Xenia today attending a meeting aimed at acquainting them with what they can do to promote international peace.

Also at the meeting were Albert Cobb, associate county agent, and Mrs. Norma Campbell, home demonstration agent.

There were persons at the meeting from Fayette, Clark, Clinton, Greene and Montgomery counties. During the morning session present economic conditions in the world were discussed. Mr. J. L. Owens of Fayette County was a

In the afternoon "Rural Family in World Affairs" was the topic of a panel discussion. Cobb was a member of the panel.

Mrs. Smith Reviews Book at Class Meeting

Members of the Marguerite Class of the First Presbyterian Church assembled at the home of Mrs. Charles Hire Tuesday when they held their regular meeting.

Mrs. Kenneth Arnold president opened the meeting by leading in the praying of the Lord's Prayer.

The usual reports were given and approved and several projects were discussed by the finance committee for the purpose of adding funds to the class treasury.

Mrs. Kenneth Craig reported for the card committee and Mrs. William Rogers reported for the flower committee.

At the close of the business session Eugene Smith was presented in an unusually interesting review of the book "No Trumpet Before Him" by Nella Gardner White.

The tribulation with the trials and tribulations of a minister and his family and all the complications that go to make up the somewhat rugged conditions of his life. The theme of the story "Work Without Glory" as the title suggests in other words "don't blow your own trumpet".

Mrs. Smith's description of the story told in an interesting manner brought forth much laughter and was the highlight of the evening with the members conceding that the moral of the story runs true to life in many instances.

Her talk was followed with the packing of twelve boxes of candy and cookies which are to be sent to members of the church now serving with the armed forces.

Mrs. Hire assisted by Mrs. John Forsythe and Mrs. C. L. Musser served a tempting salad course.

Strong Message Heard Tuesday By Rotarians

Warden Schilder
Of Reformatory at Chillicothe, Speaks

"The place to start curing crime is in the high chair, not the electric chair."

With this thought-provoking statement L. Clark Schilder, warden of the Federal Reformatory at Chillicothe, caught and held the closest attention of Rotarians and guests, at their luncheon here Tuesday, during a brief talk of compelling interest touching on the general problem of delinquency.

Schilder is a native of Ross County whose broad experience has fitted him admirably for the important post he now holds.

For 14 years he was prominent in the FBI organization, having been in charge of headquarters in Columbus and Cincinnati, later being one of J. Edgar Hoover's assistants in the national capital. While there he was head of the fingerprint identification bureau.

Previous to entering the FBI service he studied law and graduated at that professional field.

After his FBI service he was persuaded because of his experience, to enter the field of administration of federal prisons. He was identified with many such institutions including those at Atlanta, Georgia; Leavenworth, Kansas; Alcatraz, off the coast of California and later at Chillicothe.

A Student of Youth

Schilder is a student in the field of youthful criminal tendencies. He has understanding and sympathy in his handling of youth problems from the minor violator to the more serious type.

Introduced by Ben Norris of the April program committee, Warden Schilder told of many interesting contacts he had made in his prison work. He talked briefly of the federal institution at Chillicothe where 1200 boys from 17 to 24 years of age are inmates under an administrative personnel of 208 people. There is agriculture, airplane, engine and automotive schools of the best available there, with training for other trades.

The speaker said that most of these boys in the reformatory are below average in education but have an IQ far above average. They are undisciplined but smart in many ways, and alert. To the casual visitor to the institution these young men might appear like students on a college campus.

Schilder asserted that most of these young fellows were more unmoral than immoral. "You can't wave a magic wand and reform them overnight," he said. "They present a tough but an interesting job. They come from all classes, proving that it is not bad background that always causes criminality." He cited several cases of individuals with the same background who traveled completely different paths, one to crime and sometimes to so-called refined degradation, the other to high peaks of public trust and integrity.

Temptation and Weak Moments

"If any of us would stop to think that at one time or another we have faced weak moments, strong temptation and opportunity to commit a misdeed, sometimes quite serious, we should consider that many youths, convicted of crime, who were confronted with all these conditions at the same time, probably were no worse than we were. Perhaps some of the rest of us did not get caught," he said.

Before concluding his remarks, the speaker launched into the many phases of efforts which have been made to set youthful crime followers on the road to reform. "So many of them fail," he declared. "I have seen everything from psychiatry to psychology tried and I have concluded that boys can't be remade in a brief period of time. Our national concept of this problem requires some intelligent consideration and may be some changing. We must give thought to more intensive character development and also to religious reform. Force and drive with an ambition to achieve decency and above all a spirit of faith in God is needed," he said.

The Job Ahead

In closing he forcefully declared that America has not been doing all that it should toward the development of the principles of its greatest resource, which is youth.

The generation of youth today, and tomorrow, is the big question mark as to whether we shall overcome the increasing domination of Communism which is taking a strong hold in many places where attention to vast possibilities of youth is, to some extent, being neglected, he asserted.

President Himmelspach told the speaker in thanking him for coming, that the message he had brought was one of the greatest which had been heard by the club here in months.

George Finley introduced the new high school student guest, Irvin Long. Bob Hightfield, outgoing student, made a very pleasing talk in thanking club members for his two weeks' membership.

Birthday greetings were sung for Ansel Kirkpatrick and Belford Carpenter and recent returnees from Florida were mentioned by President Himmelspach. They were Stanley Schneider, Herbert Wilson, William Campbell and Ansel Kirkpatrick.

Recently elected officers of the club were briefly presented. They take over their new duties in June.

Florida Coastline Mapped by Camera

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 11 —(P)—The largest precision aerial camera in the world is being used to map the coastline in this area.

Terrain changes caused by hurricanes and other disturbances can be determined and more precise maps prepared. The project is being conducted by the U. S. coast and geodetic survey.

Women Live Longer In Britain, Report

LONDON — (P)— Medical statistician Dr. W. J. Martin reported in a paper read to the Royal Statistical Society that there is a higher death rate among men than women in England and Wales. He said no satisfactory explanation for this has been found.

Dr. Martin stated that it was previously thought the occupational risks were an explanation of the shorter lives of men, but "the large increase in the proportion of women engaged in industry in recent years has not affected the mortality sex ratio."

Shrine Club Sponsors Circus To Raise Money for Program For Underprivileged Children

HERE ARE SOME OF THE CLOWNS who will give the kiddies of Washington C. H. many a laugh when the Mills Brothers Circus comes to the Fairground here April 27. The show is sponsored by the Shrine Club to raise money for its fund to brighten the lives of the community's underprivileged children.

It will be a great day for the kiddies when Mills Brothers Circus comes to Washington C. H. April 27—a great day not only for the youngsters who get to see it, but also for the underprivileged children of the community throughout the year.

For, the circus is coming under the auspices of the Washington C. H. Shrine Club to raise money for its fund to brighten the lives of the less fortunate boys and girls.

Shriners, all busy businessmen, are taking time away from their own affairs to get behind this fund-raising enterprise.

Already they have started selling tickets in advance. For the next two Saturdays the Shriners will have a ticket booth in the business section of the city.

Harold (Babe) Maddux is general chairman of the committee for arrangements, including the ticket sale.

A special board is to be created within the club in the near future to administer the fund for the betterment of the lot of the underprivileged children.

Club Shares Proceeds

Under arrangements with the circus management, the club is to get 50 percent of the proceeds from the advance sale of tickets, but only 10 percent from the sales on circus day. That is one reason the Shriners are putting so much pressure on the advance sale.

Many public spirited and kind hearted individuals are being counted on to buy blocks of several tickets. Maddux said: "We want to thank in advance everyone who cooperates in this phase of the club's project . . . they are helping us see to it that every boy and girl who could not otherwise afford to come will get to see the circus."

This is the second time the Shrine Club has sponsored the Mills Brothers Circus. The first time was in 1949. The club's share of the proceeds then was "about $1,000". Much of the money went into furnishing the nursery at Memorial Hospital.

A spokesman for the club said "we hope—and expect—to do better this year, now that people know the club's share of the money goes to help the underprivileged youngsters right here at home."

Circus Worth Money

"Besides", he added, "this circus is one of the best on the road and everyone will get his money's worth of entertainment."

Mills Brothers Circus, he continued, is the biggest motorized circus in the world. It plays only under the auspices of local organizations raising benefit funds.

This is the 12th anniversary of the circus and its advance agent said its tour during the coming summer would cover 15 states.

The big tents will rise on the Fairground here early the morning of April 27. Performances will be given in the afternoon and in the evening.

It is a three-ring circus with the customary added attractions and novel features. Among the highlights of the entertainment are the acts of hand-picked circus stars from 18 countries, including some troupes from overseas that have never before appeared in the United States.

There also will be the menagerie, a herd of performing elephants, clowns, wire-walkers, trapeze artists, the spectacle entitled "Argentine Holiday", three rings of dancing horses and all of the traditional circus thrills.

Nothing to Rumors About Clark Gables

HOLLYWOOD, April 11—(P)— Sylvia Gable has emphatically denied a Hollywood rumor that she and husband Clark Gable have separated.

In addition, she told reporters, "there will be no separation." "I happen to love my husband," she said.

The rumor apparently started because Mrs. Gable was not with her husband when he entered Cedars of Lebanon Hospital last week for a physical checkup. She explained that she was in another hospital at the time for a minor surgical operation.

O. U. Has 4,726 For Spring Term

Several from Fayette County Included

Fayette County has a number of students at Ohio University, Athens.

They are part of 4,726 students enrolled for the spring term, and all of Ohio's 88 counties are represented among the students.

Those from this area are: John Glenn of Bloomingburg; James Easkin of near Leesburg; Deloris Godfrey of Leesburg; James Musser, Leona Scott, James Streeby, and Jack Trimmer all of Washington C. H.

The 4,165 Ohio students attending the university range from single students from Drake, Mercer and Putnam Counties to the 767 listing Cuyahoga as their home county. Most of the 561 students attending the three branches at Chillicothe, Portsmouth, and Zanesville come from the counties in which the branches are located.

Thirty of the 48 states, excluding Ohio, contribute 391 students to the campus enrollment, with New York State retaining its position as leader with 123. Thirty other countries are represented among the 65 foreign students enrolled for the spring term, two more than during the fall term.

The registration total of 4,726 includes the 4,165 attending on the campus and the 561 in the branches—179 at Chillicothe, 205 at Portsmouth and 127 at Zanesville.

Cuyahoga County continues to lead the 88 counties with 767 students while Athens County, home of the university, ranks second with 365. Scioto, with 114, and Stark, with 111, maintain their close race for third and fourth places, Montgomery is fifth with 109, followed by Mahoning 105 and Hamilton 98. Seven counties—Brown, Fulton, Hardin, Morrow, Paulding, Union and Van Wert—each have two students.

The Ohio registration of 3,677 includes 2,457 men and 1,220 women, an average of approximately two men to every woman. There are 973 classes as freshmen, 824 as sophomores, 734 as juniors, 934 as seniors, 161 in graduate school and 45 as special students.

Red Labor Unions Hit by Ohio C of C

COLUMBUS, April 11—(AP)—Communist-dominated labor unions are a "very definite menace" to Ohio plants in war work, says an Ohio Chamber of Commerce spokesman.

Herschel C. Atkinson, executive vice president of the chamber, made the statement yesterday at the second public hearing of the

CHILE'S GREATEST GRAPE HARVEST, expected to produce more than 5,000,000 gallons of wine for export, is the story here as (from left) Señoritas Eliana Schneider, Olga Correa and Carmen Valderama show you some grapes in Curico, wine industry center. (International)

Senate-House committee investigating subversives.

The committee is trying to find the best way to protect the state from subversive activities. Committee Counsel Sidney Isaacs of Cincinnati, a former FBI agent, asked Atkinson about the menace.

The C. of C. official said plant operators feared sabotage but that slow-downs among workers would be more effective. He said the best solution lies in educating people about Communism so they won't be duped.

Soap Price Curb Eased

WASHINGTON, April 11—(AP)—The government today eased its price ceilings order on fats and oils to permit premium payments for certain types of tallow used in soap making.

The grave of Lafayette in Paris is covered with soil from Bunker Hill.

Rural Zoning Plan Opinion Is Given

COLUMBUS, April 11—(AP)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill said today only residents of affected territory can vote on a rural zoning proposal.

His opinion went to Prosecutor G. L. Schilling of Clinton County. The question arose over a special election on a proposal to zone parts of Vernon and Adams Townships bordering Lake Cowan in Clinton County.

Schilling asked whether all residents of the two townships could vote on the question or only those living in the territory proposed for zoning. A majority vote is required for approval.

The proposal does not include that portion of Washington Township that also borders the lake.

Heart Clinic Set April 19

Cincy Specialist To Examine Youths

Dr. Robert Lyon, Cincinnati heart specialist, will conduct the annual heart clinic in the county health offices Thursday, April 19. It is sponsored by the state Welfare Department.

The clinic checks the heart conditions of children up to the age of 15 years who have been referred to it for further checking by a physician. The results are returned to the physician.

Each child's heart will be checked by an electrocardiograph, and a record made. The results of this and a viewing of the heart through the fluoroscope will be used by Dr. Lyon and an assistant to determine the condition of the child's heart.

If the child needs further treatment or examination he will be sent to the Children's Hospital in Cincinnati.

This clinic is for children 13 years old or younger. There is no clinic for persons above that age.

About 25 children are expected to be present for the clinic, according to Miss Gretchen Darlington, supervising nurse for the county.

Derby Television To Be from Film

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 11—(AP)—Churchill Downs said today the Kentucky Derby will not be televised "live" this year.

President Bill Corum said the derby will be filmed for use on television derby night. That will make it available to fans in the east and midwest derby night and in other areas later. Television cables have not been extended to the far west and other areas of the country.

The telecast to the east and midwest will be made around 8 or 9 P. M., derby night, May 5. Corum said. The films will be flown to Dayton, O., for network telecast by Columbia Broadcasting System.

The Record-Herald, Wednes., April 11, 1951 9 Washington C. H., Ohio

Corum said "live" television is bound to come later for the derby, possibly next year.

GOOD NEWS everywhere you look in the NEW PLYMOUTH

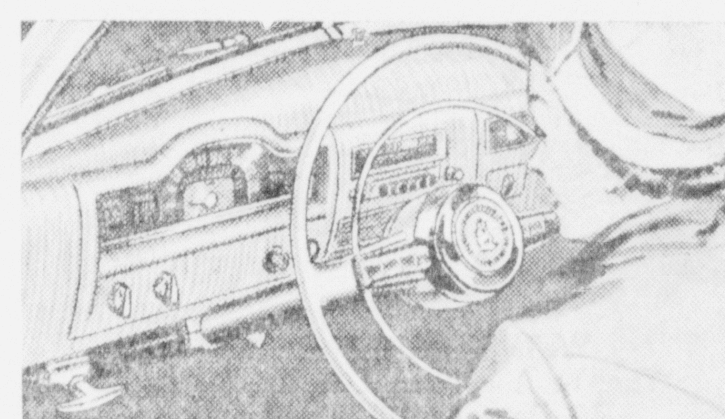

NEW "SAFETY-FLOW RIDE"—stability and safety never possible before! Even when you unexpectedly encounter violent bumps, dips, waves, or holes in the road, you enjoy a smooth and steady motion. You have complete control of the car at all times. "Safety-Flow Ride" comes from new Oriflow shock absorbers working with other engineering features.

NEW ELECTRIC WINDSHIELD WIPERS, unlike vacuum wipers, clean at a fast, constant speed, even when the engine is under a heavy load. They're standard equipment and with them you're not required to buy a vacuum booster. You enjoy better vision all around, with narrower front corner posts and a 15% larger rear window.

NEW BUMPERS, GRILLE, HOOD. The low-sweeping new hood permits a better view of the road close to the car. Individual grille units are replaceable, so you don't need a whole new grille if only one part is damaged. Also, all four fenders are bolted on; they cost less to repair or replace than fenders which are parts of the body.

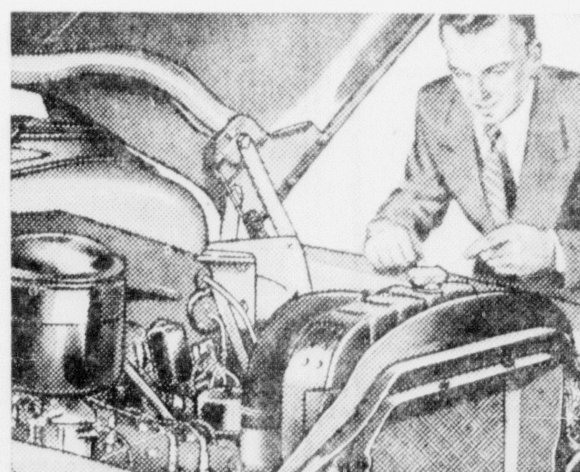

NEW INSTRUMENT PANEL AND HAND BRAKE. The new vertical-grain dash harmonizes with a variety of rich interior fabrics and trim. The new "T-handle" hand brake pulls easily, sets positively, and releases at a turn of the handle. The ignition key does three things at once; turns on the ignition, starts the engine, and puts the automatic choke in operation!

NEW ENGINE FEATURES. A new radiator pressure cap increases cooling capacity when you need it most and also helps keep the water or anti-freeze from boiling away. A new by-pass cooling system, standard on all models, goes fast warm-up and yet circulates the coolant so that the engine is fully protected under all starting and driving conditions.

Newcomers To Sport Get Big Thrills

Cold and rainy weather is an irritation but Eddie Havens, the new trainer and driver for the J&M Stable, is not worrying too much about it.
Havens, an old hand at conditioning trotters and pacers, knows it takes time and patience to bring a horse up to a race. And, he has long since learned that weather is a handicap that he just can't do anything about.

Besides, he said, the six horses under his care are developing satisfactorily in spite of the weather setbacks now and then.
There is really no need to hurry, Havens said, because his stable is not scheduled to go to the races until June 4. "We're not in any rush to move our training times down close to the two-minute mile," he said.
Present plans call for the J&M Stable to start the racing season at Louisville, Ky.
After that the campaign will take in the state fairs and the Fayette County Fair.
THE J&M Stable is a comparative newcomer into the harness racing sport. It is the turf name for the string of horses raced by Frank S. Jackson and Jess Maddux.
Jackson, president of the Jackson Glove Co., here, has long been deeply interested in harness racing and in his quiet unassuming way, but it was not until last year that he entered the sport as an active participant and horse owner.
He acquired two colts the previous fall after an illness compelled him to seek an outside interest, a hobby, to relieve the stress of business. Last fall, three more youngsters were added to the J&M Stable.
Maddux, the "M" half of the J&M Stable, is a barber by trade and a lifelong lover of harness racing. He has been in the judges stand at the Fair races here for years, usually as a timer. He has made a study of bloodlines, too.
There are no more avid railbirds anywhere than the masters of the J&M Stable. Fair weather or foul, they rarely miss a morning's workout—even if it is only a light jogging.
An annex has been built near the barn that houses the J&M Stable at the Fairground here as a sort of observatory of the semi-solarium type. It overlooks the track and there Jackson and Maddux sit in comfortable chairs when the weather is bad and watch the horses go around and around. The stop-watch is ever present.

have been entered in the major stake races in Ohio and Indiana where they will do most of their campaigning within driving distance of Washington C. H.
The racing itinerary was mapped out so that Jackson and Maddux could see most, if not all, of their performances.
In the J&M Stable are Ambrose Hanover, who won his first race at the Fair here last year as a two-year-old racing against older horses. Now, as a three-year-old, he is eligible to the famed Little Brown Jug stakes to be raced at Delaware.
Darnale, a three-year-old colt eligible for the Hambletonian, the harness racing classic for three-year-old trotters at Goshen, N. Y.; Lou Hanover, a two-year-old pacing filly whose second dam was the great old race mare Belle Mahoney;
Stormy Colby, an untried two-year-old colt and Star V. Mac, a three-year-old trotter that did not get to the races last season, but regarded a good prospect for this year.
The sixth horse in the barn under Havens' care is Jerry's Lady, a five-year-old trotter, owned by the Anderson Brothers, Paul and Elton, Washington C. H. restaurant operators.

basketball coach, soon after the close of the season just ended.

Tuesday night, he laid those plans before the board, meeting in regular session with some general explanations.

There was some discussion by the board members and many questions were put to the coach. Interest centered chiefly on the financial angles and general interest.

From the start, it was apparent that the board looked with favor on the tournament idea, but just wanted to keep itself informed and make certain there would be no serious slip-ups.

BROADLY, THE PLAN calls for two nights of basketball.

It also calls for three teams in addition to the WHS Lions. But, what those teams will be is still uncertain. Townsend said he had letters of invitation prepared and ready to mail—he was that sure of board approval—to several schools.

It was brought out during the discussions that teams in the tournament would not be any of those on the regular schedule. In a nutshell, they would be teams that do not appear here during the regular season, teams the fans here would not have much chance to see in action.

From there on, the details for the tournament were lacking.

Townsend told the board he had no doubt the fan interest or crowds for the tournament. He said he felt certain, the tourney would "more than pay expenses." The purpose of the tourney is two-fold: (1) keep interest in the sport up during the holidays and (2) keep the Lions in trim through actual competition against new and different styles of play.

Lions To Play 2 Ball Games This Week

Two baseball games in as many days today were faced by the WHS Lion diamond outfit—if the weather does not interfere again.

Thursday afternoon the Lions are to meet the Greenfield Tigers at Wilson Field here and Friday afternoon Hillsboro's Indians will come in for a game.

The Greenfield game is the payoff of one postponed from Monday because of rain and wet grounds.

The Hillsboro game is coming up in its place on the regular schedule. Both are SCO League contests. The Lions have been stymied for outdoor workouts since they turned back an invasion by London's Red Raiders last week in the opener. That was a 7-0 victory for the Lions behind the no-hit pitching of Southpaw Kenny Robinson and Ivan Blair.

With that win as a starter, the Lions have been getting in what work they can in the gymnasium—and that has not been too much.

Coach Fred Pierson said he plans no changes in the lineup that hamstrung the Raiders. He said he liked the way the Lions fielded, and was even more impressed by their hitting. He explained that both offensively and defensively, the Lions looked especially good in view of their scant practice.
